

22nd Annual West Virginia Rural Health Conference

Student and Resident Scholarship Application

General Information and Instructions

The 22nd Annual West Virginia Rural Health Conference will be held at Lakeview Resort, Morgantown, West Virginia, October 15 – 17, 2014. The Conference will award a limited number of scholarships to attend the West Virginia Rural Health Conference. Students and Residents are eligible to apply.

All scholarship applicants must provide a brief written summary depicting their personal experience and commitment to practicing medicine or serving in a rural location. This summary is to be submitted with the completed scholarship application and conference registration form (available at www.wvrha.com). Scholarships will be awarded based on applicant's experience, service, and desire to provide health services and/or promote access and the continuation of quality health care to the rural population of West Virginia. As a condition of acceptance of the scholarship, all recipients are required to attend conference sessions and all special events held during the day they attend the conference.

Recipients of conference scholarships are afforded lodging at the conference center (if recipient resides fifty (50) miles or more outside the conference area), all meals provided by the conference and waiver of the conference registration fee. Travel expenses to and from the conference site shall be the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.

Due to limited accommodations, scholarship recipients are required to share a double room with another recipient. We are requesting gender information solely for the purpose of room assignments. If possible, consideration for a specific roommate request shall be given.

All scholarship awards will be confirmed via email, therefore, email addresses must be included and legible.

To Apply: Submit Scholarship Application, Conference Registration and Summary by September 15, 2014 via email, or US Mail.
